Laundry Love: First United Methodist Church of San Angelo's ministry to the homeless and needy of San Angelo. Our 30 RAK-bags will be combined with 70 additional bags and our plarn mats will go to very needy people. Thank you to all who have donated bags, cut bags and put the pieces together and crocheted them into plarn mats. We may never meet any of these people and they may never attend any church, but through your labor of love they know they are loved by other human beings and by God himself.

Oaks of Life Retreat is for widows of veterans. The prayer shawls that have been lovingly made and prayed over will be given out during that weekend. Last year these women were so touched by the love and generosity of our congregation. Please pray for this weekend. God does amazing things through this ministry.

This congregation is an amazing example of God's love in action, reaching beyond its walls to love as commanded by God our neighbors, friends, hungry, poor, naked and marginalized. Your generosity is awesome.

Blessings

Pastor Bun
